Learning to Live Life to the Full

Brockington Bulletin | November 2014 Edition

*Mr Chris Southall
Principal*

Welcome to the First Edition of our new style bulletin, which we hope will make for a more engaging and colourful review of life at Brockington College. If you have any comments about the new bulletin, your feedback to admin@brockington.leics.sch.uk would be most welcome.

In order to recognise the significance of this year's Remembrance Day, we held a very special service at 11.00 am on Tuesday 11 November. You can read about this event in the bulletin, but I wanted to thank those parents that attended and to praise all our pupils for an outstanding tribute during the two minute silence.

Congratulations also to Mrs Clark and her team of Eco-Warriors for achieving re-designation of our 'Green Flag' Award for the fourth occasion. The flag flies proudly at the front of the College.

Our 11-16 plans continue to move forwards and since the October bulletin, Key Stage 4 curricula continue to be developed; current Year 9 pupils have been allocated into provisional option groups; building plans are nearing the point of being submitted for planning permission and we are close to completing a bid to the Government for funding.

I will share further 11-16 details with parents at the Parent Forum meeting on Tuesday 2 December, 7.00 pm to 8.00 pm. You will also be able to hear from Mrs McKenzie, Head of Religious Studies and a member of our Extended Senior Leadership Team, regarding how GCSE RS is being delivered to current Year 9 pupils.

We recently provided the opportunity for members of the governing body to undertake 'Learning Walks' on three separate occasions. Governors visited lessons across several curriculum areas and made the following comments:- "Impressed with pupils enthusiasm for learning", "very peaceful air with all keen to expand knowledge", "pupils happy to see Principal and Governors", "pupils engaged in all lessons", "staff very enthusiastic in their delivery", "classrooms were a positive working environment, enhanced by wall displays", "infectious enthusiasm and passion from teachers".

Brockington Remembers

This year, being the centenary of the start of The Great War, 1914-1918, we decided to create a display of poppies in our central courtyard area. The staff and pupils worked together on the project to make one poppy to represent each of the 5,293 lives lost in World War 1 by Leicestershire citizens.

The display was helped on its way by almost every member of the school community in a superb team effort, from designing and building to making and displaying each poppy. The resulting display is quite stunning and was the focal point of our act of Remembrance, which took place on Tuesday 11 November 2014.

We were privileged to be joined on this day by World War II veterans, Eric Lockley and Peter Winkless (Governor at the college), and post-World War II veterans, Roger Palmer and Dale Richardson, (Site Manager at the college).

Every pupil, member of staff and visitor to the college gathered in the courtyard area at 10.30 am. The brass ensemble played a fanfare, then Mr Southall, Principal, welcomed all guests and visitors, and spoke about just one of the lives represented by the poppies in the display, that of Private Frank Timson from Enderby. A full account of the life of Private Timson can be found on the following page.

Phoebe Howe (8I) read a WW1 poem, The Solider, by Rupert Brooke and a college governor, Fran Speake, gave an address about the Gospel of Saint John which was printed and given to all servicemen in WW1 as a source of comfort. More information about the Gospel of Saint John is also provided later in this bulletin.

Just before 11.00 am, The Last Post was performed by Jessica Lapworth (9N) and a two minute silence followed, which was impeccably observed by all. The veterans laid their wreaths on the poppy display, and Yvonne Doores (Staff Governor), Samantha Parsons (9O), Laura Hall (8I) and Joe Matthews (7G) were joined by invited parents and grandparents in scattering the remaining poppies in the display to bring the total to 5,293. This poignant act of Remembrance was brought to a close by Sue Williamson (School Health Coordinator) as she sounded the Reveille.

Brockington Eco-Schools Programme- Another Success!

Eco-Schools is an international award programme that guides schools on their sustainable journey, providing a framework to help embed these principles into the heart of school life. There are 46 countries around the world that run the Eco-Schools programme, linking more than 40,000 schools – from the UK to France, from Morocco to South Africa. Eco-Schools is administered in England by Keep Britain Tidy.

Pupils at Brockington College are the driving force behind Eco-Schools – they lead the Eco-Committee and help carry out an audit to assess the environmental performance of their school. Through consultation with the rest of the school and the wider community it is our pupils that decide which environmental themes they want to address and how they are going to do it. Brockington College has been awarded its 4th prestigious Green Flag award in early November, which symbolises excellence in the field of environmental activity.

Our main long-term environmental projects concentrate on recycling of paper, plastic and cans, waste reduction, healthy eating and green travel. We have participated in a 2 year SCoRE programme on reducing our energy consumption. The project was a great success with huge savings of over £12,000 on our energy bill for electricity and heating. Now, we are looking into starting new projects on biodiversity and creating links with local, as well as international, schools to share and improve our eco-schools work.

If you care about Brockington College being more eco-friendly then take part! You can become an Eco-warrior and represent your form or you can take an even more active part by becoming a member of our Eco-Committee.

New Year 7 pupils - Brockington Eco -Schools need you! Come along and take part in exciting projects and activities. Come along and make a difference! Mrs I Clark.

Pupil Safety

Please remember that vehicles should only be driven through the barrier to the main college entrance if absolutely necessary.

Drivers should be mindful of the 5mph speed restriction and proceed with caution, especially just before and after school, to ensure the safety of our pupils as they walk along the drive way.

Thank you.

Anti-Bullying Week

Brockington Pupils Spread Some Cheer

A group of four students at Brockington decided to spread a bit of cheer around Brockington this week in the spirit of 'Anti-Bullying Week'. They selected 60 students at random across Year 7, 8 and 9 and left an anonymous note and gift in their morning registers for them. The notes included positive phrases such as 'You are beautiful, no matter what they say'. The idea behind it was to 'make somebody's day', and create a bit of care and cheer around the building. The group did not want to be identified as they felt that would detract from the point of it, but instead wanted to enjoy seeing the impact without any credit being assigned to them. A true act of kindness which strengthens our ethos of Koinonia!

Staying safe online

Brockington College appreciates that, along with the wide range of useful resources that the internet brings, come a number of inherent dangers.

We take our responsibilities with regards child e-safety extremely seriously and all students are actively taught how to use the web in a safe and responsible manner throughout their time at the college.

In addition to working with students we are also trying to help parents/carers make the internet safer for their children. Last half-term Mr Patel, ICT Co-ordinator at the college, facilitated an E-Safety event at the college run by members of the Police Child Exploitation team and Youth Offending Services, and attended by over 40 parents.

For more information on E-Safety please visit our e-safety blog at <http://goo.gl/a1FDg4> (or scan the QR code) where we will be regularly posting updated guidance tips and advice which we feel may be useful.

Please do get in touch via the IT Support Team on itsupport@brockington.leics.sch.uk if you have any concerns or questions.

Maths Update - Trips, Challenges and Speakers

Welcome to the first in a series of maths updates in the Brockington Bulletin. The Intermediate and Junior Maths Challenges will continue this academic year, where students get to apply their mathematical skills to solving challenging questions.

In addition, in March 2015, Brockington College will be taking a team from Year 8 and 9 to compete against other schools within the East Midlands Region in a day of problem solving and participation in creative challenges. We will keep you updated as to the progress and success of Brockington College in the above challenges!

The Maths Department will be hosting STEM external speakers on November 28th to talk about the application of Mathematics in day to day jobs and how developing their Mathematical knowledge beyond

Parent Governor Vacancy

The term of office for one of our four parent governors, Mr Paul Johnson, is due to come to an end at the start of 2015. Mr Johnson would ideally like to serve another term of office, however we need to check if there are any other eligible parents/carers who would like to be nominated, in which case we would have to hold a ballot.

Parent governors contribute to the work of the governing body in ensuring high standards of achievement for all children and young people by:

- > setting the school's vision, ethos and strategic direction
- > holding the principal to account for the educational performance of the school and its pupils
- > overseeing the financial performance of the school and making sure its money is well spent

Parent governors must have good interpersonal skills, effective levels of literacy and numeracy and a strong commitment to improving outcomes for children and young people.

For further information, please contact Mrs L Nixon, Clerk to the Governors, on 0116 2863722 or at ppa@brockington.leics.sch.uk by Friday 5 December 2014.

KS3 can help them in the discipline of Engineering. Guest speakers from industry will talk about their career paths and how a secure and solid understanding of maths has led to their success.

In the Easter term, a trip to Bletchley Park, the scene of the code breakers in the Second World War will be organised for pupils to witness the use of mathematics in breaking down codes and forms of communication by the Germans. This trip will involve both mathematics and humanities staff and students visiting the site of an integral part of England's history in combating the German's aerial strikes during the war.

We are also looking into students attending the famous 'Christmas Lectures' in December 2015 where students will get to participate in workshops showing real life and fun applications of mathematics to every day life. We will keep you posted about dates and availability of this popular event as more information becomes available.

Finally, please remember that the maths Moodle site, available through the pupil links on the Brockington website, has worksheets with answers given to help pupils enhance their learning. In addition, mock tests are available for students to practice before their end of topic tests. Should you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact your child's teacher.

Emergency Medication

We have a number of children in school that carry 'Emergency Medicines'

Can we please ask that:

- Your child carries these with them at ALL times
- That expiry dates are checked
- That the medicine is labelled with your child's name on it
- That you consider providing a 'spare one' to be kept in the First Aid Room
- Inhalers accompany your child with them to PE lessons (a small labelled container to keep the inhaler in will help to prevent loss of the item).
- That your child takes them on school trips

ALL other medicine users, including those with an inhaler, must have a medicines consent form, signed by the parent/carer. These are available on the college website or at reception.

If you would like further information or are unsure of procedures to follow, please do not hesitate to ask:

Mrs Williamson - Health Co-ordinator (ext. 109)

Emergency Contacts

Please can you ensure that your contact details are always kept up-to date and if possible add alternative contacts, such as a work phone number, so that we may get hold of you in an emergency. Any new details should be provided to: Mrs Barnes on 0116 2863722 (ext. 110)

Risk Assessments

Following an injury or a period of illness, if your child requires specific care when returning to school, please can you call to arrange for a risk assessment. We can then help to establish what health and safety measures are required in order to support your child. Mrs Williamson on 0116

WW1 Battlefields Tour

For the 100th commemoration of the start of World War I, Jake Summers, James Kumagai and Mr Carr went to the First World War battlefields to research soldier's lives, visit the military graveyards and former battlefields and to soak up the incredible atmosphere that exists in the area of northern France and southern Belgium, where during the three and a half years of The Great War, millions of men gave their lives.

They travelled with students and teachers from over 20 other schools from Leicestershire and spent the first night at the Kingswood Activity Centre in Kent, where they completed some preliminary research on soldiers from Leicestershire and where those soldiers may be buried.

Jake recorded: "The trip was very engaging from the beginning. When we got off the coach at Kingswood we literally just threw down our bags in our rooms and began using the many facilities. These were "outdoor pursuits" such as high ropes and obstacle courses. Later we were taken into a rock climbing area where we could climb, play basketball or football. Later on we researched the lives of some soldiers and found there were lots of local connections."

James recalled: "We made friends with the people that we shared a dormitory with and we got to know the others on trip better and better as the trip went on. In the morning of the second day we went on the Eurotunnel, which was my first time and quite strange.

When we got to France, we immediately went on to the Langemark cemetery. It was an experience like no other. Seeing thousands of almost identical graves lined up. It was unforgettable. We visited a museum next and saw many things such as a replica trench and many artefacts. Even though it was very serious, the day was fun and quite an adventure."

Jake: "In the evening we went on a very thought provoking trip was to the famous Menin Gate in Ypres, Belgium. A ceremony is held there every single night and has been since 1928. The Last Post is played and there is a two minute silence, a silence all of those on our trip took part in. During our visit to Ypres, we had a chance to look around the town and even buy some tasty Belgian chocolates and souvenirs to take home!"

The trip involved a great deal of travelling which in itself was an education- James recalled: "Just on the coach through Belgium, the amount of war cemeteries was staggering; the scale only hits you when you see it in real life. We visited cemeteries such as Tyne Cot, the largest Commonwealth cemetery for any war in history with almost 12,000 graves".

Jake: "The next day, after a good sleep we went to the Somme and to many different memorials. It was a day of really interesting and different learning. We then returned to the hotel to eat and see 3 British soldiers talk us through their equipment and compare it to what the World War I Tommies used. We went to bed tired and woke up bright and early for the next day's activities."

James: "We visited Ypres twice; the second time was on the last day when we went to an incredible museum filled with really interesting displays and videos. After that we went to a pottery workshop where we had the privilege of making one of the thousands of soldier sculptures which will be included in a memorial by the Commonwealth War Graves Commission. Each one will represent the 800,000 soldiers who died in and around Ypres. They will be placed in a field which will show just how many lost their lives.

I really enjoyed the trip. It was even more interesting than I thought before going. The cemeteries I will never forget. This trip really was a once in a lifetime opportunity."

Jake: "We headed home in the afternoon. I felt really glad that I had seen the battlefields. I will never forget them. They were awe inspiring. It was a very long journey back from Belgium to Leicester in one day and when I did get home it felt so rewarding to just lie down in my own bed! It was a great trip."

Kash4Kenya

A message from Zama Montessori, South Africa

Dear Brockington

It has been 4 months since your group visited our school, and our children have not stopped talking about your visit.

First, I want to thank you for the 2 weeks you spent with us. Please convey our thanks to every teacher and every child who came. Especially thank them for the work they did under difficult conditions, without complaining. It was not the best time for the school too, I hope some of you will get an opportunity to visit when our circumstances are more normal; it might help you understand our struggle during an abnormal period. Your children are great, I hope they remain like that and never change. Zama children learned so much from them about commitment and caring about others! These are just some of the things that come up in their conversations. Thank you for the bags of gifts, we still have to move them to the school because they will be put to use when we begin the new year in January. What has been put to good use are the soccer kits! Our teams have not lost a single match since they began turning out in their smart kits, even against teams that used to beat them consistently.

Recycle

Recycle and raise funds for the Kash4Kenya meal aid scheme! Don't send your unwanted textiles to land fill, recycle them using the textile bank at Brockington.

The Salvation Army will give us 50% of the proceeds made from donated textiles.

So please bring in good quality clean textiles, including curtains, bed linen, clothing accessories and paired shoes.

The textile bank is situated in the main car park.

We entered 10 children in the spelling bee, 4 went on to the provincial leg, and Nomvula will be competing in the nationals on the 29th. Please tell Jo that Mahlatse got up to provincials in the spelling bee, won a trophy for guitar duet (using the guitar she bought her) as well as for vocal duet at eisteddfod, and got provincial colours for tumbling.

We moved back to the school building last month. It is not quite done yet, some things like floors will be done later when we have raised enough funds. We are very pleased with the result, it is beautiful, spacious and bright. The playground is also taking shape. The children do a bit of work every week. We have planted many flowers and shrubs and have started creating a log stair. I'm sending you some photos now, but I shall keep you informed about developments. I hope you did not have too many regrets about not being able to go to Kenya. Your visit was definitely the highlight of our school year. The photos are not good quality, but they will convey the growth to which your group contributed so much.

Warmest regards,
Bukelwa Selema (Zama Montessori Centre)

The rubber crumb pitch is available to hire any evening of the week, (where spaces in the timetable permit) for casual pay and play use, as well as weekly team training. The pitch can be hired by the third or in its entirety, (our thirds are approximately three times the size of some operators' small sided pitches). We also hire out the facility on Saturday and Sunday too if you need a surface that won't get muddy in winter! Whether you want a pitch for a one off football game or need a pitch to train on a weekly basis, we offer competitive prices and a state of the art playing surface to suit your sporting needs.

Performing Arts

Here at Brockington College, we recognise the importance that learning to play a musical instrument can have on a young adult. It can help to promote a sense of self-discipline, self-esteem and enhance self-expression/creativity. We, therefore, encourage as many pupils as possible to start and learn a musical instrument. If you are interested in booking lessons for your child, then please contact the teacher of the instrument you are interested in. They will then send out their information and contracts in order to start lessons with them.

If you have any questions, please contact Miss Styles at the school on 0116 286 3722 or via email ses@brockington.leics.sch.uk
