

GEOGRAPHY BROCKINGTON COLLEGE

ABILITY BAND AND ASSESSMENT POINT DESCRIPTORS

Geography Year 8 AP1

Ability Band 3	Ability Band 2	Ability Band 1
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Can use a comprehensive range of geographical words in context. • Can justify the differences in features of a variety of places around the world at different scales and make connections between changes over time. • Can make connections and draw conclusions between human and physical processes and compare how these processes create patterns at local, national and global scales. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Can use geographical words accurately and confidently in context. • Can explain the features of a variety of places around the world at different scales and analyse changes over time. • Can explain human and physical processes and begin to analyse how these processes create patterns at a range of scales 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Can use geographical words in context. • Can describe the similarities and differences between places and how they can change over time. • Can describe human and physical processes and recognise how these processes create patterns.

Geography Year 8 AP2

Ability Band 3	Ability Band 2	Ability Band 1
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Can use a comprehensive range of geographical words accurately and confidently in context. • Can incorporate own knowledge of places and hypothesise through making a wider range of connections about the possible changes over time. • Can research and incorporate own knowledge to make connections and draw conclusions including both human and physical processes and compare how these processes create patterns at local, national and global scales. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Can use a comprehensive range of geographical words in context. • Can justify the differences in features of a variety of places around the world at different scales and make connections between changes over time. • Can make connections and draw conclusions between human and physical processes and compare how these processes create patterns at local, national and global scales. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • C can use geographical words accurately and confidently in context. • Can explain the features of a variety of places around the world at different scales and analyse changes over time. • Can explain human and physical processes and begin to analyse how these processes create patterns at a range of scales