

Brockington College

A Church of England Academy

LEARNING TO LIVE LIFE TO THE FULL

May 2019

Dear Parents/Carers

I am delighted to introduce myself as the new Principal of Brockington College. It is a privilege to have been appointed by the governing body and entrusted with the job of leading the school.

I am thrilled to be joining the strong community of staff, students and parents/carers at Brockington College who have already been so welcoming. There is no doubt that I am joining a unique school and it has been a pleasure to meet all pupils in special assemblies and to speak with many individually. They have been kind and thoughtful as well as proud and enthusiastic about their school.

From my previous experience as vice principal at Long Field Academy, Melton, I know that a successful and happy school depends on all of us working together. I am very excited to be working alongside the highly skilled and professional staff and governors at Brockington College who are passionate and committed to securing the best outcomes for our young people. I intend to do my utmost to uphold and build upon the values and ethos that make Brockington College special. We will continue to deliver high quality education and provide exciting opportunities for all pupils, enabling them to learn to live life to the full.

I know that Brockington College is a very good school and that Mr Southall will be a hard act to follow. However, as you will already be aware, Chris Southall has now taken up the role of CEO of Embrace Multi Academy Trust, which Brockington College is a member of. Mr Southall will therefore continue to be very much involved in the future of Brockington College, alongside the other schools within the trust.

I look forward to meeting you all in due course and to working in partnership with you to achieve the best for your children.

Yours sincerely

Sadie Batstone
Principal
