Dear Parents/Carers

Re: English GCSE texts available for purchase

In September, your child will be beginning their GCSE English Literature course. As you may be aware, Year 10 will be studying three texts for GCSE English Literature: An Inspector Calls, A Christmas Carol and Romeo and Juliet (studied in Year 11).

Pupils will need their own personal copy of each of these texts to allow them to annotate and make notes in their own books, as well as for homework tasks. Additionally, it is necessary for pupils to have texts from the same publisher as the one that we will be using within the classroom, so that we are literally on the same page!

Although it is not essential to purchase these texts until after the summer holidays, we are providing parents with the opportunity to buy the texts now, to ensure your child is fully prepared for their GCSE course in September.

We are beginning the course with the study of An Inspector Calls, which will be followed by A Christmas Carol after half term. These books can be purchased from the school cabin at the following prices:

An Inspector Calls	£8
A Christmas Carol	£5
Romeo and Juliet	£5

If your child is eligible for Pupil Premium, they can collect their copies of the texts immediately.

Thank you for your support in this matter and please do not hesitate to contact me at the school should you have any questions.

Yours sincerely

James Green
Director of Learning for English
